Pleture Bill at Colonial.

Moving pictures at the Colonial include the Georgia minstrels and other features, which are above the ordinary. Mr. Bryant's illustrated song, "Summertime," makes the best hit of the many on the program at each performance.

Idlewood Casino.

The bill at the Idlewood Casino this week is one of the best yet offered at the popular open-air resort, all of the acts being of the highest class obtainable. Next week's program will be up to the high standard set by the shows since the opening.

Although the rain yesterday cut down the attendance, many picnic parties have made dates at Idlewood, and will make merry their to-day and to-morrow.

ROBBED ON STEAMER

Thieves Used Hooks on Long Sticks to Reach Clothes.

GALLIPOLIS, OffIO, June 3.—Passengers on the Pittsburg and Cincinarti packet steamer Virginia, which arrived to-day, were robbed several miles below here while they slept. That thieves pulled their victims' clothing through the transoms of state-rooms by using hooks on a long stick. Frank Laurant, of Washington, D. C., one woman passenger, and J. I. Laurant, of Knoxville, Tenn., were the heaviest losers, the thieves taking from them money and valuable jewelry. The police think a regular gang is working systematically on the river steamers.

SMITH RESIGNS.

Member of Isthmian Canal Commission Retires on July 15th.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—President Roservelt has accepted the resignation of Jackson Smith, member of the Isthmian Canal Commission and manager of the department of labor, water and subsistence, with headquarters at Culebra. Canal Zone, Mr. Smith has been in the service three years, and the President in accepting the resignation complimented him on his work. He will relinquish his official duties on July 15th, but his resignation becomes effective on September 15th, thus giving him the benefit of the sixty days' leave of absence afforded by law.
